Press Release

We are honored to announce the launch of SHIELDS Reinsurance Brokers headquartered in Dubai at the DIFC and regulated by the DFSA.

SHIELDS is an independent broker specialised in Treaty and Facultative reinsurance as well as Financial and Catastrophe modelling using the most advanced technologies to help insurers and reinsurers quantify their exposures and make informed decisions.

Ahmed Rajab founder and CEO of SHIELDS has more than 20 years reinsurance experience in MENA. Ahmed started his career as a reinsurance underwriter at SOREMA Paris, then worked at Willis Re for 11 years as Regional Director for MENA; he then joined AON Benfield as CEO for MENA for 5 years.

Ahmed said: "I am truly proud to start SHIELDS at the DIFC, our headquarter in Dubai allows us to have all our team and resources locally. The proximity to our clients and DIFC gives us the opportunity to offers the most advanced and competitive reinsurance services. We have no preconceived ideas; each professional client is unique and deserves a customised solution. We have Analytics resources and we have access to reinsurers across Europe, Middle East, Africa, Asia, US and Bermuda allowing SHIELDS to select and design the most adequate reinsurance solutions with first class carriers."
